

TOTAL COMMITMENT TO THE TOTAL TALE

Storytellers of Canada – Conteurs du Canada

POST-CONFERENCE MASTER CLASS

Dates: July 7 – 9, 2008; 9.30 a.m. – 4.30 p.m.

Place: Walking distance U of S, Saskatoon

WORKSHOP LEADERS: Jan Andrews & Jennifer Cayley

Fee: $340

Number of Participants: 10

Purpose: To assist tellers intensify the power of their telling by deepening their connections to the stories told.

Process: Dynamic. We work as a group but the approach is individualized. We explore text, physicality, range, emotional levels, resistance – all within storytelling's subtle context. We help you experience the full potential of your tales.

To Apply: The Master Class is aimed at tellers who have been performing publicly for a number of years. First step is to send your storytelling resume to jcayley@magma.ca.

Payment: Once you have been accepted, you will be asked to mail a check for $340 to Andrews-Cayley Enterprises, R.R. #2, Lanark, ON, K0G 1K0.

Returns: Those who took the Master Class last year are welcome to re-apply. For you, this year's class offers opportunity for further discovery and follow-up.

A former National Coordinator of SC-CC with experience as the Artistic Director of two storytelling series, Jan is known for her ability to touch her listener's souls. As well as being a powerful teller, Jennifer brings knowledge of voice and movement work gained in workshops in Canada and abroad. The two complement each other's skills with humour and grace. They have developed the Master Class with particular care for storytellers' needs. Other workshop venues include Hamilton (at last year's conference), Ottawa and Montreal.

The Experience in Hamilton

"My telling has changed. It just feels a little bigger, deeper, more resonant. The image I have is of swimming in the sea. I can dive under if I want and there are all kinds of things below," Bonnie Logan, Saskatoon.

"The exercises have opened doors I did not even know were there," Christine Mayr, Montreal.

"Support is an important part of this process and I think you did this very well," Mary Fearon, St. John's.

"I can't wait for workshop number 2," Kevin Mackenzie, Regina.
