Afternoon: Box lunch and bus tour to Grand Pre, with Acadian stories

Evening: Maritime concert of story and song, our "Kitchen Party"

Sunday June 25 - Morning: SC/CC AGM continued

Stories from the Four Corners

Closing (end 1 pm)

This is just a minimal idea of when events take place; we will enlarge and update as funding is confirmed and more details are available. There will be stories to start the morning and afternoon sessions, stories whenever you want to tell them. Breakfast is included with university accommodations. Lunch will be provided on-site for Thursday and Friday, box lunch for the Saturday tour. Suppers on your own; there is a lovely market/food court with a variety of meals available, where you can eat outdoors on the waterfront and watch the boats go by.

The Concert of Immigration Stories at Pier 21 promises to be a great night. It is a public concert and tickets are available to your guests and the general public at $15 each.
